

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES SECTION

Firefighter Prehospital Care (FPC) Program
Module 5 - Primary Patient Assessment/Airway Management/O₂ Delivery
7 - Secondary Patient Assessment
8 - Reporting & Documentation

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION: POST-COURSE TEST

Name: _____	Employee Number: _____	Date: _____
Signature: _____	Command: _____	Shift: _____
Instructor: _____	Employee Number: _____

Write the letter of the term in the space next to the appropriate description.

- a) E
- b) M
- c) C
- d) A
- e) P

1. ____ Gloves, goggles, bunker suit pants and boots.
2. ____ How many patients.
3. ____ How the injury occurred and potential severity.
4. ____ Scene safety.
5. ____ Are all the necessary resources on scene or enroute?

For the following questions, circle the letter of the best answer.

1. When a serious life threat is identified (critical injury) it will be dealt with:

- a) Following the completion of the primary assessment.
- b) Immediately.
- c) Following the completion of a secondary assessment.
- d) After the arrival of TEMS.

2. The mnemonic AVPU is a learning tool to assist in assessing the patient for:

- a) Critical injuries
- b) Allergies
- c) Level of responsiveness
- d) Vital signs

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES SECTION

Firefighter Prehospital Care (FPC) Program

Module 5 - Primary Patient Assessment/Airway Management/O₂ Delivery

7 - Secondary Patient Assessment

8 - Reporting & Documentation

- 3. Using the mnemonic CLAPS-D may help identify injuries that you can:
 - a) Feel via palpation and touch.
 - b) Smell via odor.
 - c) See via a thorough visual inspection.
 - d) Hear via a thorough patient interview.

- 4. A patient who is responsive to pain should always have an OPA installed to protect their airway.
 - a) True
 - b) False

- 5. An unresponsive patient with a MOI that indicates a potential spinal injury should have their airway opened via the modified jaw thrust maneuver.
 - a) True
 - b) False

- 6. All patients will have a secondary survey performed by TFS staff.
 - a) True
 - b) False

- 7. If TFS attends a VSA call but does not provide care, it is not necessary to fill out the TFS Vital Signs Absent Patient Call Report.
 - A) True
 - B) False

- 8. Minimum Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to be used at ALL medical calls as per TFS FCC-150 is:
 - A) Gloves
 - B) Gloves and eyewear
 - C) Gloves, eyewear, bunker boots and bunker pants
 - D) No PPE required

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES SECTION

Firefighter Prehospital Care (FPC) Program

Module 5 - Primary Patient Assessment/Airway Management/O₂ Delivery

7 - Secondary Patient Assessment

8 - Reporting & Documentation

9. A 60yr male has fallen twelve feet from a stepladder onto a concrete floor. He is supine, conscious & alert with no neck/back pain. He would like to sit up.

You should:

- A) Allow Pt to sit up
- B) Have the Pt remain still & take control of the head/neck
- C) Ask the Pt to show you how they fell
- D) Ask Pt to remain still & do not take control of the head/neck

10. If the pelvis is unstable when pressure is applied, push/pull in two other planes to confirm instability.

- A) True
- B) False

11. Fractures of both Femurs are considered a life-threatening injury.

- A) True
- B) False

12. An 18yr female collapsed and has had a seizure. She is now conscious and tells you her name is Susan but she does not know her location or what day it is.

She is oriented:

- A) X1 - Person
- B) X2 - Person + Place
- C) X3 - Person + Place + Time

13. A primary assessment ends at:

- A) The pelvis
- B) The knees
- C) The ankles
- D) The left foot

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES SECTION

Firefighter Prehospital Care (FPC) Program

Module 5 - Primary Patient Assessment/Airway Management/O₂ Delivery

7 - Secondary Patient Assessment

8 - Reporting & Documentation

14. Halfway through the secondary assessment your partner tells you the Pt has stopped breathing. You MUST complete the secondary assessment before helping your partner.

- A) True
- B) False

15. Pump 311 responds to a call for a 40yr male collapse. On arrival the patient tells the crew that while shoveling snow about 20 min ago he experienced a dull, heavy, chest pain that now radiates into his right arm.

What aspects of the pain assessment has the patient answered?

- A) OPQRST
- B) OPQR
- C) PQRS
- D) QRST